Subscribe to the award-winning monthly journal, Welcome Home and join a nationwide community of parents sharing feelings, insight, information, humor and more. Written, edited, and illustrated by and for parents, Welcome Home is for mothers and fathers spending generous amounts of time with their children—from infancy through the teen years. Welcome Home is a four-time recipient of the prestigious Parents Choice Award, and winner of the 2000 Parent's Guide to Children's Media Award for Outstanding Achievement in Parenting Materials.

Now in its twentieth year of publication, Welcome Home includes:

- a. stories about parents' struggles and successes,
- b. informative articles about family life and public policy issues,
- c. parent-to-parent problem solving,
- d. humor, poetry, and more.

Each month, you'll receive our journal—32 advertisement-free pages that will help remind you of the “big picture” in the midst of your day-to-day work caring for your children. You'll also read about fairness issues in policy and media coverage. For more information, see www.FamilyAndHome.org
